Since our last update, Have A Heart Volunteer Day has taken place. It's our supersized volunteer event that takes place each year in early February. For the second year in a row, Linglestown Life Church hosted the event in their multi-purpose room. It was a cold day with a snowy forecast, but that didn't stop the 160 volunteers who braved the weather to volunteer. They assembled a variety of craft kits, drew designs on cards and decorated the paper bags used to hold the contents of our Bags of Smiles. At the end of the day, thousands of kits were made, along with hundreds of fun cards and decorated bags. All these efforts will be put to good use. They'll be placed into our Bags of Smiles, Coping Kits, and Craft Kit boxes that are shipped out monthly to 200 regional hospitals. View more photos from the day here.

Have you noticed this advertisement in a magazine? Did you wonder how Caitlin's Smiles came to be featured in national publications? With the cost of ads, we certainly could not justify or afford the cost. This is where our friends at PAVONE come in. They are a full-service creative agency with four offices throughout the East Coast, one being here in Harrisburg. Pavone has supported Caitlin's Smiles with their donated services since the very beginning. Click here to learn more about Pavone's involvement.

 The first of many deliveries Play-Doh arrived this week. The employees of DPH7 out of Elizabethtown were the first to deliver their stash of 350 cans of Doh. More are expected to roll in throughout the month. Every year, workers at nearby Amazon buildings compete in a contest to see who can collect the most Doh for Caitlin's Smiles. We'll let you know how many they collected next month.
